

The New York Metro Area Chapter invites you to attend...

“Bringing the Best of DB to DC Fund Options”

Please join us as our speaker, Brett Hammond of MSCI, discusses how defined contribution plans and wealth management advisors are turning to lessons from institutional investing, including its emphasis on low expenses, long-term returns, appropriate funding levels, and liability driven investment (e.g., income replacement), in an effort to significantly improve outcomes for plan participants.

P. Brett Hammond
MSCI

Brett Hammond is Managing Director and Head of Index Applied Research for MSCI in New York, with responsibility for research to support new risk premia and economic exposure indices.

Prior to joining MSCI, Mr. Hammond was Chief Investment Strategist for TIAA-CREF. He has published over 30 articles and books in the areas of finance, higher education and public policy. Mr. Hammond is a former faculty member of the University of California (Berkeley and Los Angeles), and is currently an adjunct professor at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, and Executive Chair of the Research Council on Global Investment.
