

The New York Metro Area Chapter invites you to attend...

Department of Labor Presentation

What have we learned from the Madoff scandal? This presentation will review prudent procedures for selecting and monitoring investment advisors. Additional discussion topics include:

- Learn about the new disclosure requirements on Schedule C of 5500
- Review of the 2009 plan year changes for 5500 and electronic filing procedures
- Update on COBRA subsidy and appeals process.

Grand Central Station
New York, NY 10017

The presentation is sponsored by the New York Metro Area Chapter of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists (ISCEBS), a nonprofit organization that serves as an educational resource in the field of employee benefits

Speakers - U.S. Department of Labor's New York Regional Office - EBSA

Nichelle Langone Deputy Regional Director

Nichelle Langone obtained a J.D. from New York Law School in 1997. She was admitted to the New York State Bar in April 1998. Ms. Langone has been employed with the U.S. Department of Labor – Employee Benefits Security Administration since 1997. She started as an Investigator and was promoted to a Senior Investigator in 2002. As an Investigator, Ms. Langone worked a variety of civil and criminal cases involving both healthcare and pension issues. Additionally, she served as an Instructor at EBSA's Criminal Enforcement Training course for six years. Currently, she is a Supervisory Investigator with the responsibility of supervising nine Investigators.

Valerie Tourso Supervisory Benefits Advisor

Valerie Tourso joined the U.S. Department of Labor's New York Regional Office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) as the Supervisory Benefits Advisor in July 2008. In her current position she is responsible for the timely and accurate disposition of ERISA inquiries regarding employee benefit plans, as well as outreach events to educate participants and beneficiaries of their rights under ERISA as well as advise employers and service providers how to comply with ERISA requirements. Valerie attended the University of La Verne in Southern California, and prior to the DOL she owned her own Communications Consulting business providing public relations, marketing and communication strategies to clients in both the private and public sector. Mrs. Tourso was also the Director of Communications for the New York City Employees Retirement System, and before relocating to New York, she was the Director of Sales Communications and Product Development for Blue Cross of California
