

The New York Metro Area Chapter invites you to attend...

Update on Recent Legal Decisions and How They Affect Your Plans

Please join us as our speaker, Katherine Hesse, of Murphy Hesse Toomey & Lehane LLP, provides a review of notable cases from the United States Supreme Court as well as from the lower courts. Our speaker will highlight trends in benefit and employment cases, and describe tips to avoiding litigation.

Katherine Hesse, Partner
Murphy Hesse Toomey & Lehane LLP

Ms. Hesse is a partner in the law firm of Murphy Hesse Toomey & Lehane, LLP, in Boston, Massachusetts, where she practices primarily in labor and employment and employee benefits law. Ms. Hesse serves as counsel to Fortune 500 companies, emerging businesses, government, tax-exempt organizations and large Taft-Hartley and governmental trusts. She advises clients on a daily basis on employment and benefits issues, and she has litigated many employment and benefits cases before the state and federal trial and appellate courts, administrative agencies and arbitrators. Ms. Hesse also serves as a professional trustee for public and Taft-Hartley trust funds and as an expert witness, mediator and arbitrator. She led the team of attorneys that was named the only firm in New England and one of only 11 in the United States on the special ERISA fiduciary litigation panel for one of the world's largest insurance companies. Ms. Hesse has served as President of ISCEBS, currently serves the International Foundation as Chair of its Government Liaison Committee and is a former member of the Advisory Board of Directors. She sits on the editorial boards of Benefits Quarterly and Wolters Kluwer Law and Business Pension Editorial Advisory Board. Ms. Hesse has taught at Northeastern University and speaks frequently on employment and benefits issues. She received her B.A. degree from Smith College and her J.D. degree from the Boston University School of Law.
